The CARES Act, enacted March 27, 2020, establishes and funds the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF) under Section 18004(a)(1), which provides institutions of higher education with grant funding to assist students (“student grant”) in the wake of the coronavirus pandemic. HCI College (the “College”) has been allocated $366,000 in emergency financial aid grants to students for additional expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to coronavirus. These additional expenses include items under a student’s cost of attendance, such as food, housing, course materials, technology, healthcare, and childcare.

Please respond to the question below:

Have you incurred additional expenses related to the disruption of campus operation caused by the coronavirus pandemic such as food, housing, course materials, technology, healthcare, and childcare?
